

St Mary's Catholic Primary School Newsletter Friday 14th June 2019

This week's quote:

Trip money

Could we ask that all monies have been handed in for upcoming trips, there are a number of deadlines for payments looming large – 20th Wonderland (Reception), 21st Warwick Castle (Year 1), 24th Llandudno (Year 4)

Father's Day

Thank you to all the Dads that turned-up for our Father's Day celebration. We had a fantastic turnout.

CAFOD

We raised a grand total of £144 for CAFOD today. The children looked amazing all dressed-up in the colours of flags of the world.

Year 3 Mythstories Day

Year 3 are having a Mythstories day in school on Monday the 17th of June, we would like them all to partake in a picnic lunch as part of the day so we are asking all parents if they could provide their child with a packed lunch. Thank you.

Special Awards : 14th June 2019

Huge Congratulations to...
CERTIFICATE RECEIVER	NAME	REASON
Reception STUDENT OF THE WEEK	Aleksander Mroziak	Aleksander has produced some fantastic independent writing this week and is an absolute pleasure to teach.
Class 1 STUDENT OF THE WEEK	Daisy Taylor	For being able to complete a lot more work in the time given and also being super organised for PE. Well done!
Class 2 STUDENT OF THE WEEK	Ashton Church	For making the right decisions both in and out of school and working really hard all week.
Class 3 STUDENT OF THE WEEK	Julieta Vinueza-Anzar	For being a superstar in Maths, she has been working so hard that she has now moved onto blue learning objectives. 😊 Great job Julieta!
Class 4 STUDENT OF THE WEEK	River Jones	River has really impressed me over the course of this year. She's made such an improvement, she's also very conscientious.
Class 5 STUDENT OF THE WEEK	Holly Morgan	For her amazing persuasive argument! Holly is a true role model and always works hard. A superstar all round!
Class 6 STUDENT OF THE WEEK	Freya Dickenson	Most improved in every way. Always resilient and happy to have a go. Such a positive and delightful girl to have in class. Well deserved student of the week!
