Friday 13th November 2020

Happy Friday everyone!! We've made it to the end of week one of isolation.

This is currently what I look like after working on my computer all week. I hope you have all been successful with your learning this week. I have been receiving some of your work, which your parents have sent to the school email address. Take a look at these fantastic pieces of work...

These two fabulous pieces were sent in from Jenna, and strangely I think I saw the wolf in my garden that morning!

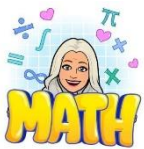

This acrostic poem was sent in by Jessica Sam, some absolutely beautiful language in here Jessica, well done!

Beth has been working super hard this week! I think she's after my job, she looks super teacher like stood by her whiteboard.

I'd love to see lots more of your work next week.

I'm sure you'll all join me in wishing Mr Hotchkiss a very happy birthday for tomorrow, I think it's our Demi's too, so wishing you both a very happy birthday.

Who are CAFOD?

CAFOD are an international development charity and the official aid agency of the Catholic Church in England and Wales.

They reach out to people living in poverty with practical help, whatever their religion or culture. Through their global Church network, one of the largest in the world, they have the potential to reach everyone. And they campaign for global justice, so that every woman, man and child can live a full and dignified life.
